NEW MEDICINE!
THE GREATEST SUCCESS OF THE AGE!!
NOTICE COD-LIVER OIL & SYRUP OF IODIZED HORSE-RADISH of GRIMAULT and Co., Apothecaries and chemists, 7, Rue de la Feuillade, Paris. According to the certificates of the physicians of the Paris Hospitals, detailed in the prospectus, and with the approbation of several Academies, this Syrup is employed with the greatest success in place of Cod-liver Oil, to which it is really superior. It cures diseases of the chest, scrofula, lymphatic disorders, green sickness, muscular atony, and loss of appetite, at regenerates the constitution by purifying the Blood, and is, in a word the most powerful depurative known. It never fatigues the stomach and bowels like the iodide of potassium and the iodide of iron, and is administered with the greatest efficacy to young children subject to humours, or obstruction of the glands. Dr. CAZENAVE, of Saint Louis hospital, Paris, recommends it particularly in cutaneous diseases conjointly with the dille which bear his name.
PHOSPHATE OF IRON. DE LERAS, apothecary, doctor of science, 7, Rue de la Feuillade, Paris.—This new ferruginous medicine contains the elements of the bones and blood, and iron in a liquid state. From observations made in the Paris hospitals and detailed in the prospectus, it is superior to ferruginous pills, iodide of iron, iron reduced by hydrogen, pills and syrup of the iodide of iron, and cures rapidly, stomach complaints, painful digestion, poverty of the blood, debility of strength and appetite, and the diseases inseparable from the climates. It is the best adjunct to Cod-liver Oil, and the best preserver of health in tropical climates.
ELIXIR OF PEPSINE,
L. and Co., chemists, 7, [illegible] Paris, according to the for[illegible] of H.M. [illegible] knight of the Legion of Hon[illegible] the Emperor of the French [illegible] in the gastric juice itself, or rather the digestive principle purified, which digests food in the stomach. When from various causes the supply of the digestive fluid is too small, the inevitable consequences are bad digestion, gastritis, gastralgia, inflammation of the mucous coats of the stomach and bowels, heartburn, anæmia, loss of strength, and in females, general derangement. The elixir of Pepsine, which is mentioned by the approbation of the Paris Academy of Medicine, speedily cures all such diseases, and prevents vomiting during pregnancy.
INTERNAL OR LOCAL NEW CURATIVE AGENT,
MATICO
GRIMAULT & Co., PARIS
THIS new remedy is prepared from the leaves of a Peruvian pepper shrub, called Matico, and CURES PROMPTLY and INTELLIGENT without any fear of inflammatory results. THE COMMERCIAL BANK OF INDIA.

THIS Company has been formed for the purpose of purchasing a site in the Colony of Hongkong for Docks and constructing Docks and erecting suitable Premises thereon for carrying on the Business of Building or Docking and Repairing Steamers and Sailing Vessels, and for the purchase of the Docks now owned and carried on at Whampoa by Messrs. T. HUNT & Co. with the Appurtenances Plant and Good-will of the Docking Business of that Firm.

It is proposed to register, the Company as one of Limited Liability either under the Imperial Act or under any Ordinance which the local Legislature may pass enabling local Companies to do so, the property of the Company in the meantime being vested in the Trustees, and the Deed of Settlement of the Company, now in course of preparation, is being framed in accordance with this intention.

The very considerable increase in the number of Vessels employed in what may be termed local trade, or in voyages that either originate or terminate at Hongkong, in addition to the great quantity of tonnage visiting the Port from all quarters of the World, afford ample scope for the remunerative operations of Dock Companies, in addition to those which are already in existence.

Application has been made to Her Majesty's Government with reference to obtaining a site for the proposed Docks in the Colony, and the project has been favourably entertained, steps being in progress to facilitate this object, the necessary preliminary investigations as to the suitable character of the proposed site having been conducted and satisfactorily reported upon, by Mr. S. B. RAWLING.

Liberal support has been promised to the undertaking which it is contemplated must necessarily prove a very remunerative one.

Further applications for Shares can (if further notice be addressed to the Undersigned from whom forms of application and all particulars can be obtained.

The Scheme of a Local Bank for this Colony which Branches as the most important places in China has been in contemplation for a very long period.

The local and foreign trade in Hongkong and at the open ports in China and Japan has increased so rapidly within the last few years that additional Banking facilities are felt to be required.

The Banks now in China being only branches of Corporations whose head quarters are in England or India, and which were formed chiefly with the view of carrying on exchange operations between those countries and China, are scarcely in a position to deal satisfactorily with the local trade which has become so much more extensive and varied than in former years.

This deficiency the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Company will supply, and will in fact assume the same position (with relation to the Colony as the Presidency Banks in India, or the Banks of Australia in their respective localities.

The Establishment of a Mint in Hongkong, providing an adequate supply of proper currency, will render a local Banking medium essential to carry out its operations, and the almost certain disappearance of the existing Compradore system (so far as money is concerned) will also ensure the Bank becoming in course of time the exclusive medium for the transaction of the monetary operations connected with trade.

For the anticipated success of this enterprise there are therefore ample grounds; and the great prosperity which has attended the working of other local associations in China clearly shewn that the largest profits are obtained by those Public Companies which possess an interested local body of Proprietors or Shareholders whose support naturally forms a chief element of remunerative success.

The Bank will commence operations simultaneously in Hongkong and Shanghai and as the importance of its business at the latter place must be very great, it is intended to establish a local Board of Directors there for more effectually meeting the work. As circumstances render it advisable the Bank will establish Branches at other places.

In the distribution of Shares Hongkong and Shanghai will equally participate. Shares will also be reserved for the other ports in China and Japan and for persons residing elsewhere, who are directly interested in the China Trade.

Applications for Shares must be addressed until further notice, to the Provisional Committee, care of Messrs. DENT & Co.

THE steamer Showyleen arrived from Shanghai last evening. She left on the 27th ultimo but our files reach only to the 24th. We cannot detect a word of news.

She brings 117 men of the 22nd N. I. and 60 of the 67th. The latter invalids we suppose.

The Doomi brought telegrams from Calcutta dated Calcutta 8th September. The ninth sale averaged 1074 rupees for Patna, and 1,024 for Benares. After the sale Patna advanced 16 rupees.

The steamer Velver reached Calcutta on the 8th instant.

WE see Miss Longworth, who claims to be the wife of Major Yelverton, has commenced an action of libel against the Saturday Review for slander contained in an article published in the issue of that paper of 30th July.

Really we hope she may succeed, for a more unfair article we never read. The Saturday Review has become such a dogmatical oracle, that good swinging damages might impart a most beneficial variety to its tone. At present every article, notice, review, and communication in its columns appears to be finished in one and the same Delphic machine. Pound, hammer, and smash—wit, sarcasm, and irony—every notice is similarly spiced. The effort to be conclusive is sometime repulsive, and by no chance is an ill natured deduction omitted.

SOMETIME last week, a Portuguese family gave an evening party on the occasion of some domestic anniversary. They employed a French cook to make them some handsome pastry, of which the host, hostess and guests all partook.

Some few hours after parting, alarming symptoms appeared on the persons of all who had partaken of the feast. Medical aid was forthwith called. All had been poisoned! The prompt application of effectual remedies averted any fatal effects, but it was several days before the alarming symptoms had entirely disappeared.

An investigation being held, it came to light that one or more of the French cook's cakes were enveloped in beautiful green jackets, which covering looked so tempting as to induce the parties to partake largely of it. It turned out that the green colouring was derived from a strong poison—known in trade as Schecles Green,—and in Chemistry, as Arsenite of Copper.

A Chinese subordinate to the French cook proved to be the party to blame, although he acted through ignorance. The circumstance should be a warning to our readers.

WE are glad to report the release of Achan, the well known ex-linguist. The Canton Mandarins actually squeezed $52,000 out of him, which is nearly all that the poor fellow is worth.

His only crime was that he let a house at Canton to a man who turned out to be a rebel spy, and amongst whose papers was found a note from Achan relative to the hiring of the house. It was one of those foolish polite letters which Chinese etiquette so freely indulges in. It appeared that a rental had been offered for the house something below what Achan asked, and that still he did not wish to lose a tenant. The chit we hear, ran to this effect—"Are we not as brothers? Why should so small a difference disturb our "friendship? Take the house and live in it "for nothing if you wish," and so on. The note was no doubt indited by some literary pursuer, and never read by Achan at all.

This occurred about three years ago when Laou was Governor General. Achan heard of this note being in the hands of the authorities, and proceeded boldly to Canton to exculpate himself. As no notice was taken against him, he supposed the affair had blown over. The persecution commenced by application for subscription towards the two millions of taels, which the Governor General of Canton was pledged to remit to Teang-kwo-fan. Achan refused to contribute the sum demanded from him, 3,000 taels, and the consequence was that he was arrested and this charge trumped up against him. Two hundred thousand taels were demanded from him in the first place. He was kept in gaol for six weeks; he only offered $25,000; finally he was made to kneel on the stones for several days until he had completed arrangements for paying $52,000.

And all this while British troops are tenoling Mandarin soldiers the platoon and manual! The Provincial government at Canton exists by extortion. With the trade of the port utterly prostrate, they act on the principle of killing the goose that lays the golden eggs. The Canton Mandarins appear perfectly reckless—they have destroyed confidence utterly, and have driven away all capital out of their jurisdiction. Old Canton stands no chance—luck runs hard against it; that may change; but its natural guardians seem bent on throttling it.

We think the subject a fair matter for diplomacy. Large sums of money were invested on the Shamson site, and the Mandarins have surely no right to make this property worthless by their outrageous system of extortion. Such a remonstrance would be deemed interference by the British Minister—supplying drill instructors, and custom house officers is not interference at all—neither is swamping Consular law for the support of the Custom house!

WE learn that the fares for Chinese passengers between this and Canton are to be further lowered, if they have not been reduced already, —to 10 cents per head.

We cannot think our local authorities are doing their duty in easing the colony flooded with the Canton rabble, simply because it suits the interests or the inclinations of two rival American Steam Packet Companies, to cut each other's throats. A stop could easily be put to it by causing the Police to examine all the Chinese passengers who may arrive by boats which convey them at such very cheap fares. The delay would be so great, that in case of one thousand passengers arriving by one steamer, it would take the whole night to discharge them. The authorities would be perfectly justified in adopting such a step towards one steamer which might carry Chinese at such very reduced rates, and in freeing from surveillance another steamer which may adopt a more legitimate scale of fares.

The authorities we submit can easily stop the nuisance, and we maintain that they should do so. In the winter time, amongst a thousand Chinese passengers, there are sure to be some suffering from the small pox. In such case the steamer should be ordered to quarantine where she would have to remain some weeks.

In this view of the case the Colonial Surgeon should interpose. Is it right we ask in a sanatory point of view, to huddle a thousand of the poorest class of Chinese on to the deck of a steamer, and to let them loose on a British Colony without restriction or surveillance? If only one of the number had small pox at starting, he would stand a fair chance of the contagion during a seven hours passage. And this danger requires to be the more guarded against, inasmuch as the Chinese are in the habit of pursuing their daily vocations with the small pox actually upon them. This we can vouch for personally.

The steamers plying between this and Canton are a great institution. They are not only a credit to their proprietors and to the flag they fly, but they are a vast public convenience. Their speed, accommodation, and management are unexceptionable, and they are great favorites with us. But when they proceed to let loose on us, the rabble and

This morning shortly after six o'clock the culprit, Lee Atye, condemned to death at the last criminal sessions for the commission of piracy and murder on the 26th July last, was hanged at the Gaol immediately in front of the Magistracy.

The unfortunate wretch walked to the scaffold with a very steady step, but as the rope was being adjusted his courage in a measure seemed to forsake him, and he groaned audibly. The preparations being completed, the bolt was drawn, and in a few seconds all was over. The spectators of the scene did not number much over two hundred, few of whom remained till the body was cut down at 7 o'clock.
